

For when VAT gets complicated

Centurion
VAT SPECIALISTS

VAT is a complex tax and as HMRC become more vigilant in their compliance programme the need to proactively manage VAT within an organisation becomes ever more important. We provide a wide variety of services, uniquely designed and individually tailored to deliver VAT solutions for a range of organisations. Above all, we are here to listen carefully and to respond to your business's individual VAT needs or the VAT needs of your clients.

Consultancy

We can provide expert advice on specific projects or ongoing issues that affect your business, such as property, international trade, VAT liability issues or partial exemption. We can also advise you on VAT recovery on deal costs, disputes with HMRC including VAT assessments and penalties.

Compliance

We understand that VAT Compliance is high on a finance director's agenda. We offer expert periodic health checks to ensure your business is dealing with VAT issues accurately and on time.

Business Review

We can undertake detailed reviews of your business and VAT accounting procedures to help minimise risk, reduce cost and identify savings plus ensure that you are operating in the most VAT efficient way.

Management Programme

External Management Programmes help you to maintain VAT compliance and identify areas of concern. We offer this in conjunction with a valuable helpline service in order to provide accessible VAT support by phone.

VAT Resource

We can step in and provide a VAT Resource whenever needed and can provide valuable cover during specialist VAT staff absence.

Training

We deliver tailor-made and generic training to help your staff and managers handle the VAT process more effectively. We can even bring this service directly to you, to deliver bespoke, practical sessions.

Why use Centurion?

We've been providing expert VAT support for over 20 years. Our people are our strength. Made up of VAT experts, we offer our clients over 160 years collective experience in the field of VAT, including expertise drawn from many years with the 'big four', as well as in industry and HM Revenue & Customs. We cater for the needs of a wide spectrum of businesses from large corporations, the education sector, housing associations, local authorities and charities.
